

Angel Poetry inspired Shakespeare

A small book on angels and saints and their poetry as a silver line of devotion and faith

Bastiaan Poem dedicated Shakespeare from the darkness to the light his power was with might a small token of friendship was his way and made for everyone a golden day as we all look in the sun and say Brahman your will be done

A thousand rays of the sun compared to the Allmighty one.
As the prayer of surrender, as the message of a high sender.
as He cuts all problems asunder and fills our days with wonder the mighty roar of gods blessed by queens and lords gives us happiness the most at the shores of wisdom coast as the mighty roar the demons felt to their core as they paid the final fee still the exit to see.

as a lofty sea made them all to see mercy as the line of light gave them all a lofty sight

Shakespeare at heart

To be or not to be The dust of dreams to get happy To exist is to be alive and be of avail.

We all learn to be at heart, feeling all happiness and suffer to be a diamonds angel.

We fear the dark, We fear the evil as the shared mark of goodness.

We speak of prayers, we speak of talking the angels and gods to be near.

As we love those around us they love us for who we are.

As the bond of the unknown is by the ground of the gods. as they without body interfere.

As the angels hear our whispers as words of freedom and service

As the angels hear the whispers of heartfull words and feelings

As the angels hear the voice of destiny of seeking its avail.

As the angels with hands of unknown parts search for the love of service

As the angels in service all use the words of wisdom to give humanity the diamonds of rubies origins.

As the angels see a computer at the freedom counting rubies diseases called the grid of central computing.

As the angels coming near a small gesture of words yet unknown but with the promise of a golden hand award.

As the angels love to hear wisdom of a pure heart and soul give it a small person a feeling at heart.

As the angels seeking a method of imparting words of science and religion as we choose the direction the compass gives.

As the angels call a shakespeare the words of english wisdom called the language of sands, sands of time sands of all times ahead.

We call the love of angels ahead name the phi as a person of love

We see the phi as a signal to be fruitfull in a time apart

As the person of phi name a symbol of japanese ki to be

There is only one person to call the bread of angels as wisdom to be apart

As to seek the love of gods give the hands above the lord

As to have the feeling of friendship as the days to come sailig the ship to give Columbus the feeling a ocean of happiness to sail.

As the sail to set is to keep the wisdom ahead as to feel

The coast of happiness the time to give wisdom a part.

As to set sail the angels give a time ahead, the horizon the feeling of the true sun ahead.

As at night the stars give sail to have a ship solar light to give the direction a right.

Its sail of phi angels as the greek symbol of love ahead.
Gives the glance of friendship as angels be near as the person a mirror glances the person ahead.

As a silver mirror shows our soul we only need the life of a soul ahead.
As to see the soul of friendship only at angels being bread.

As the life of breath ahead the pure air of just one being given the glance of soft hair to be.
as we all love the gender apart as a rivine just to care as feelings cross the bridge even hard times ahead.

As my identity in source to be protected and safe.

As my identity by surrender to prevail the destnity and fate

As to be prevailed by a source of religious karma yes as the source myself to be

Whenever my source of safe and the name of a religion bound by function and the art of service in a artisan to be

As the dust of dreams, taken from source to art more than the art of the new sources to be.

Giving glance to a purpose unknown, invisible and pure as a new sculpture to be Angels as wings do laud the art of flying more than creatures can see.

Angels as wings do fly
more than the road
the mountains to be as the art of vision gives an angel the art
to see.

My angels laud with their wings as flying
to see.

As the angels,
with light and heads as they in the darkness do see.

The road for an angel from far as seen, as the art of service the dark ones do feel.

As the angels,
admired by creatures of faith and afear'd by darkness and the art to a message yet unseen they laud the happiness as the moment of choice. and angel the ordeal the darkness afear'd to escape the hands of demons as they give darkness the feeling of a suffer and greed yet the faith foretells the saving of a lonely in the future to see.

As angels fly as their wings do command the will of high above.

As angels fly as their compass gives the light at direction just one time above.

As angels keep their wings as light and health intact just to attend matters as their will gives aright.

As angels with their wings do laud when humans take love as high from above.

As angels with their words do whisper at the command of the Lord. just to save a soul and heart, as future tells us apart.

As angels are with wings do receive love above. as their glance with no stain and injury as love takes part.

do laud when a human child chooses love from above.

As angels grant and bless with the will of the Lord and even a relationship given from above.

As angels grant and bless no words can tell the blessing and grace.
from just one layer above.

As angels grant and bless no human can tell when love is given from above.

As angels with their wings do fly and the wish of a heart to receive love with friends from above.

As angels laud the future as a child saves souls with the feeling of suffer as close as heart.

As angels laud the future and do tell, all suffer to save mankind and society from above.

As angels laud, do not tell their name, and form but their love takes from, even with a relationship from more than just above.

do laud the wisdom of the Lord and more their own love from the Lord above.

do care the citizens of godheads place and region, as rights invisible from anointed above.

As angels with the light of solar orb, fly as daylight to complete all commands, and rest at the high place above.

As angels laud as their wings do attend the commands of high light in the sphere of the lord.

As angels laud as their wings do attend given the command as their heart tells with the soft voice.

As angels laud as their wings do attend given the commands as their will hear his special voice.

As angels laud as their wings do attend given the command as their light body appears as wings and humans as their form of high beauty.

As angels laud their wings do
attend given the commands as the Lord high above give their work and labor as their existence is blessed.

we on earth blessed by angels and saints we share our society to fulfill our own life. given the purity of angels and given the search and seek of our own pursuit as happiness calls.

As angels laud as their wings do
attend given the commands, blessed be a self-reliant society calling for angels taking over the fight of evil when our hands fall down.

As angels do laud their wings, they feel the love of the lord as blessed by their union.

As angels do laud their wings,
and complete their tasks as healed and in the belovedness as the Lord grants them their life.

As angels give their soul to the Lord as they still carry their body of light, as they with their name of archangels give their existence, as they in hands of the lord, their hands never fail.

As saints give their soul to the Lord he carries them to the fulfillment of their life if they are strong a heroic deed, if they are with wisdom a writer's hand, if they are soft the blessing of the weak.

As saints give their soul,
their full existence in his hands as the Lord grants them the light body after death, as to seek the inner intent of their heart.

the angels do laud and granted their inner bond, and granted their life's service they given the holy one will seek their destiny.

As angels do laud as the souls given to the Lord taken to safety as he created earth as language crosses the border of culture the saints and angels without their mark given to the lord fulfill the tasks as their inner bond and inner intent.

As God creates earth and even the children carry the name as their heart seeks happiness.

As the Lord tells his conscience i have no self interest as the wisdom of the father commands to intermediate all wishes of those seeking refuge.

The highest angel working and the simple figure for food or a pleasant day

The prayer of self sacrifice or the soul to the Lord blessed be all those speaking praying and in intent

Blessed all those who seek the high refuge of the Lord

Their intent will be inner they will be accepted as their prayers are honest and good hearted they are with intent of his special care.

As their prayers accepted as their humble voice, as their inner heart tells the name of the Lord their wishes will be heard as their prayers are in the conscience of daylight and all the angels as they laud their wings as the Lord is granted the safe refuge of a soul and heart, life and the prayers given.

Angels as the Lord gives his love to all as personal bonds in the heart and soul.
They never fail as love abundantly is given for their name tells.

his commands as their service in daylight accepts.

Angels as the lord gives his command as their wings carry deeds and actions as their will gives commands.

Angels as the lord gives willpower in their midst as their feeling as their hearts do tell they recognize as his radiance gives glance.

Angels as the lord
gives his commands
their willpower satisfied with their wings flying as the reality gives their purpose as angels show only by light.

Angels as the lord
gives his commands,
as never exhausted they fly as their wings commanded from high above his love foretells.

Angels as the Lord
grants his blessing
the angels fullfills duty and plight,
as their wings grow.

Angels as the lord
grants his blessing,
as wings of light,
and souls of wisdom,
and blessed be them fullfilling duty and plighy, they never fail,
and the lord grants them higher love, and higher esteem as they show the power of the lord.

Angels as the lord
grants their wings to grow, their tasks with heroism and their love as the deepest relationship with a beauty can tell.

Angels as the lord
grants task and purpose service and commands as their will in inner life gives radiance to his high power saving and working and blessing those in favor.

Angels growing wings,

as their voice heard
by that utmost high.

Angels growing wings,
as their voice heard
in deep prayer service and contemplation

Angels growing wings,
as their voice heard
as the whisper of virtue prosperity and the right of their wishes coming true

Angels growing wings,
as their voice heard
as the Lord hears their surrendering acceptance.

Angels growing wings,
as their voice heard
as heaven calls by their love and their rights as service counts the eternity.

Angels growing wings,
as their voice heard
as even from far and distant light
their service counts as their Lord commands their will.

Angels grow wings, as their choice is for the utmost Lord and discarding all luxury and interest.

Angels growing wings
as the right to work is in prayer safe as the hands command.

Angels growing wings,
as the right to exist
is in the safe refuge, as their wings command.

Angels growing wings,
as the right to exist,
as property of the utmost high lord.

Angels growing wings,
we choose the function of the heart as wings close by command by the will of uncommon high gospel.

Angels growing wings,

we choose to follow
the steps of that high one.
we call saviour.

Angels growing wings,
we choose to follow
the wings grow as service to eternity as counted stept by step

Angels growing wings,
we choose to live as daylight the omnipresent commands.

As the wings of angels share the goodness, love and wisdom as that Lord commands.

Wings of angels silver light as inner golden bond.

Wings of light solar source as wings fly without gravity support.

Wings of diamond found in heaven as a property high gods

Wings of angels love superior as the Lord commands his grace

Wings of wisdom as the gods as insight always tell

Wings by the use of will as the high one always wil in the heart do tell

As we love those angels as speaking of rescue safe refuge and the use of wings always near for those in mercy as searched for youth as purtiy does tell

As we love those angels
as the vow of celibatic and full devoted life never property gained as the use of unselfish work and service as

As we love angels

As angels commanded from high above heroes who seen in light grant their work as sacrifice.

Do living daylight tell.

Wings the Lord does tell as the message we tell Wings of silver light

more than a choice as wisdom gave sight a choice was given angels tell

Wings of the eternal Lord given instruments as each angel gives mantle and coat
as the darkness gives warmth and light and the use of tools the angels

the lord as visible bond and golden will inner as made by silver and personal test given the Lord for eternal
